THE JOURNAL OF CHEMICAL PHYSICS is published semi-monthly by the American Institute of Physics. Its purpose is to bridge a gap between journals of physics and journals of chemistry. The artificial boundary between physics and chemistry has now been in actual fact completely eliminated, and a large and active group is engaged in research which is as much the one as the other. It is to this group that the Journal is rendering its principal service and makes its greatest appeal, both as a prompt and efficient medium for publication of research and as a convenient and carefully edited assemblage of pertinent information.

Information for Contributors

Send manuscripts to J. W. STOUT, Editor, The Journal of Chemical Physics, Department of Chemistry, The University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill. 60637. Unless otherwise stated, submission of a manuscript is a representation that it has not been copyrighted, published, or currently submitted for publication elsewhere.

AIP's Physics Auxiliary Publication Service (PAPS) is a low-cost depository for material which is part of and supplementary to a published paper, but is too long to be included in the journal; inquire of the Editor.

All mathematical expressions and formulas, insofar as possible, should be typed, with unavailable Greek letters or symbols inserted neatly in ink. Distinguish between capital and small letters. Avoid complicated superscripts and subscripts. Avoid repetition of a complicated expression by representing it by a symbol. Identify in the margin handwritten Greek letters and unusual symbols. Use fractional exponents instead of root signs.

References should appear as consecutively numbered footnotes. Literature citations of technical journals should be in the form indicated in the Style Manual of the American Institute of Physics (price $2.50 prepaid from American Institute of Physics, Dept. BN, 335 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y. 10017).

Tables may be typewritten on sheets separate from the running text. Each table must have a caption that will make the data in the table intelligible without reference to the text. Avoid complicated column headings.

Figures should, whenever practicable, be planned for reproduction in one-column width (8 cm). Line drawings should be India ink on white paper or high-quality tracing cloth. The original drawing or a high-quality glossy print should be submitted. To facilitate mailing and handling, original drawings should not exceed 22 by 28 cm in size. Lettering, preferably drawn with a mechanical set, should be of a size so that when reduced the smallest lower-case letters will not be less than about 1.5 mm. Avoid gross disparities in lettering size on a drawing. Consult the Style Manual of the American Institute of Physics for further discussion of figures. Type figure captions on a separate sheet of paper. Number figures consecutively. Identify each original drawing or photograph with the figure number and authors' names, written where they will not be reproduced.

Proof and all correspondence concerning papers in the process of publication should be addressed to: Editorial Supervisor, The Journal of Chemical Physics, American Institute of Physics, 335 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y. 10017. In all correspondence, reference should be made to title, author, journal, and scheduled date of issue. A limited number of alterations in proof are unavoidable, but the cost of making extensive alterations after the article has been set in type will be charged to the author.
