The Journal of Chemical Physics is published semimonthly by the American Institute of Physics (AIP). Its purpose is to bridge a gap between journals of physics and journals of chemistry. The artificial boundary between physics and chemistry has now been in actual fact completely eliminated, and a large and active group is engaged in research which is as much the one as the other. It is to this group that the Journal is rendering its principal service and makes its greatest appeal, both as a prompt and efficient medium for publication of research and as a convenient and carefully edited assemblage of pertinent information.

Information for Contributors

Submit manuscripts in duplicate to John Light, Editor, Journal of Chemical Physics, Department of Chemistry, 5735 S. Ellis Avenue, The University of Chicago, Chicago, IL 60637. Submission is a representation that the manuscript has not been published previously nor currently submitted for publication elsewhere. The manuscript should be accompanied by a statement transferring copyright from the authors (or their employers—whoever holds the copyright) to AIP; a suitable form for copyright transfer is occasionally printed in the back of this journal and is available from the Editor's office or AIP. This written transfer of copyright, which previously was assumed to be implicit in the act of submitting a manuscript, is necessary under the 1978 U.S. copyright law in order for AIP to continue disseminating physics research results as widely as possible. Further information may be obtained from AIP. Authors may suggest a running title of approximately 40 characters and the desired section (see Table of Contents) for their articles.

Publication Charge: To support the cost of wide dissemination of research results through publication of journal pages and production of a data base of articles, the author's institution is requested to pay a page charge of $55 per page (with a one-page minimum) and an article charge of $20 per article. For Errata the minimum page charge is $10, with no article charge.

Reprints: Reprints may be ordered at current rates from AIP MASS, 500 Sunnyside Boulevard, Woodbury, NY 11797-2999; minimum order of 100 is required.

All mathematical expressions and formulas, insofar as possible, should be typed, with unavailable Greek letters or symbols inserted neatly in ink. Distinguish between capital and small letters. Avoid complicated superscripts and subscripts. Avoid repetition of a complicated expression by representing it as a symbol. Identify in the margin handwritten Greek letters and unusual symbols. Use fractional exponents instead of root signs.

References should appear as consecutively numbered footnotes. Literature citations of technical journals should be in the form indicated in the AIP Style Manual available from American Institute of Physics, c/o AIDC, 64 Depot Road, Colchester, VT 05446, for $10.00 prepaid. To order via credit card, call toll free: 800-488-2665.

Tables may be typewritten on sheets separate from the running text. Each table must have a caption that will make the data in the table intelligible without reference to the text. Avoid complicated column headings.

Figures should, whenever practicable, be planned for reproduction in one-column width (8 cm). Line drawings should be in India ink on white paper or high-quality tracing cloth. The original drawing or a high-quality glossy print should be submitted. To facilitate mailing and handling, original drawings should not exceed 22 by 28 cm in size. Lettering, preferably drawn with a mechanical set, should be of a size so that when reduced the smallest lower-case letters will not be less than about 1.5 mm. Avoid gross disparities in lettering size on a drawing. Consult the AIP Style Manual for further discussion of figures. Type figure captions on a separate sheet of paper. Number figures consecutively. Identify each original drawing or photograph with the figure number and authors' names, written where they will not be reproduced.

AIP's Physics Auxiliary Publication Service (PAPS) is a low-cost depository for material that is part of and supplementary to a published paper, but is too long to be included in the journal; inquire of the Editor. Authors are encouraged to submit to PAPS extensive compilations of data and results which may be important only to a few workers in the field.

Proofs and all correspondence concerning papers in the process of publication should be addressed to: Editorial Supervisor, The Journal of Chemical Physics, American Institute of Physics, 500 Sunnyside Boulevard, Woodbury, NY 11797-2999. In all correspondence, reference should be made to title, author, journal, and scheduled date of issue. A limited number of alterations in proof are unavoidable, but the cost of making extensive alterations after the article has been set in type will be charged to the author.

Permission is granted to quote from the journal with the customary acknowledgment of the source. To reprint a figure, table, or other excerpt requires in addition the consent of one of the original authors and notification to AIP. Reproduction for advertising or promotional purposes, or republication in any form, is permitted only under license from AIP, which will normally require that the permission of one of the authors also be obtained.
