Review of Scientific Instruments, published by the American Institute of Physics (AIP), is a journal devoted to scientific instruments, apparatus, and techniques. Its contents include original and review articles on instruments in physics, chemistry, and the life sciences, and sections on new instruments and new materials. Content is published online daily, collected into a monthly online and printed issue (12 issues per year); one volume is published annually. Conference proceedings are published and supplied in addition to the Journal's scheduled monthly issues.

Submissions: Submit manuscripts at rsi.peerx-press.org. Submission implies that the manuscript has not been published previously and is not currently submitted for publication elsewhere. For specific editorial format requirements and submission information, visit rsi.aip.org/authors.

Publication Charge: Although the journal carries no regular page charge, for any regular published article that exceeds 10 journal pages, a mandatory $150 page charge will be added for each page in excess of 10 pages.

Open Access: Through participation in Author Select® and payment of a $1500 fee, authors may choose open access publication for their accepted papers. Authors will receive information during the production process. More details about this option may be found at rsi.aip.org/authors.

Color Figures: If authors supply usable color graphics files in time for the production process, color will appear in the online journal free of charge. Authors or their institutions must bear the cost of any color they wish to use in print. A fixed rate of $325 for each color figure applies for color in print. For multipart figures, a single charge will apply only if all parts are submitted as a single piece of artwork.

Reprints: Authors will be contacted about reprint orders during the production process; all orders are placed through Rightslink. Direct questions to pcr@aip.org.
